Driver Accused Of Hit-Run After Flagman Injured

Third Highway Employe Is Hurt In Two Years By Motorists

Gerald Moore Lackey of Culver City was apprehended at the junction of Highways 20 and 40 last Thursday evening by Patrolman Roy Stallard and charged with hit and run after Lackey's car was alleged to have struck William Fordham of Truckee, a division of highways flagman at McIver's curve in Truckee a short time earlier.

Fordham had halted west bound traffic while the state machines were turning in the roadway. The car driven by Lackey cut out of the west bound line, passing cars ahead of it on the right, according to witnesses.

When it reached the flagman it continued by bumping Fordham. Suddenly it accelerated, Fordham said, and had to jump to avoid being hit, but was struck by the bumper and fender of the car.

The car continued west without stopping until it was halted by Stallard who had been notified.

Fordham is in the Tahoe Forest Hospital with a bruised leg and a cracked vertabrae.

Fordham is the third division of highways employe in the Truckee district to be struck by cars controlled by flagmen during the past two years. Ken Fuday was hit last year and Gale Brown the year previously.

Drivers are asked to take particular care in controlled areas to avoid serious accidents.

A total of 195 students took advantage of the hunter-safety training course sponsored by the Tahoe-Truckee School District during the past two weeks, Warden Irv Single of the Department of Fish and Game reported.

The instructors were Sergeant Ed Freeman and Patrolman Carroll Maynard, Bud Owens, Darrell Knoefler, Lynn Kishbaugh and Single all of Truckee and L. D. Griffith of Tahoe. Classes were held in all the elementary schools as well as the high school.

Weather Chilly But Precipitation Lags In Truckee District

Unseasonally cool, with even a touch of winter at times, has predominated the weather picture in this area during the past week or so.

Enough snow fell on Donner during the weekend to cause motorists to resort to skid chains for a couple of hour and flurries of snow have fallen intermittently since that time, although never enough to stay on the ground.

The U. S. Forest Service reports a precipitation total of .21 of an inch since the first of the month with a seasonal total of 23,82 inches.

Assistant Ranger Nelson Stone reported making a trip into the Mt. Pluto country this week and found there was no snow at all, while on this date last year there were drifts up to 12 feet in depth. This, he said, indicates the dryness of the season and the need for moisture.

At present, he said, the region is only 88 per cent of normal in precipitation.

Stockmen, who are bringing in cattle and sheep for the summer, report feed drying and welcomed the current stormy period, even though it is light.

For the most part the only damage done by the chilly, mist weather was to disrupt fishing excursions and planned picnics.

Neugebauers Present Many Good Shows At Donner During Month

AFFAIRS OF STATE

by Henry C. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—Adoption of a resolution by the board of directors of the California State Employees Association, opposng the proposal that the state have a private utility company furnish and maintain communications equipment for the California Highway Patrol stands out as another example of the growing tenacles of civil service.

During the legislative session of 1953, the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company was asked to conduct a survey and report back to the legislature on the question of whether or not it would be cheaper for the taxpayers to lease rather than own and operate its own communications equipment.

In addition, the office of A. Alan Post, legislative auditor, conducted a survey in which it was determined that great savings could be effected through the lease arrangement. Some of the figures were challenged by the state department of finance.

In any event, the legislature of 1954 wrote into the budget sufficient authority for the Department of Finance to proceed with the lease arrangement and through this action, indicated that the legislature, the direct representatives of the people of the state, wanted this procedure followd.

The senate finance committee, however, directed the department to explore the possibility of putting the proposed contract out to bid, as firms other than the telephone company sought to get the business. But the intent of the legislature to put the communications system in the hands of a private firm was not altered.

But then further opposition to saving the taxpayers some money arose when an opinion from the legislative counsel was asked as to whether the contract would be legal, in view of the constitutional requirements which state that all workers employed by the state shall be civil service employees, unless civil service employees cannot be found to do the job.

The legislative counsel rendered a lengthy opinion, but held neither way on the subject. The opinion said it was a "close question," which could be resolved only on the way the contract was written. However, the contract hasn't been written, although the department of finance is working on specifications.

Yet even before it is decided whether or not the contract is legal, the CSEA adopts a resolution opposing the move, and its secretary, S. G. Hanson, issues a statement declaring "the CSEA board is aware that the patrol desires to improve and expand communications, but it is clear that this can be done efficiently and economically without contracting the communications service to a private company in violation of the law.

"If additional maintenance or planning is needed, certainly qualified individuals can be recruited under the competitive system and properly assigned within civil service and the necessary equipment obtained."

Logically, this conclusion could be expanded to the ridiculous phase to the detriment of private enterprise in what is supposed to be a free instead of a socialistic economy.

Logically, why couldn't the state start a pencil factory, spend the taxpayers' money for equipment, maintenance and personnel, fill up the factory with civil service employees, all to keep within the Constitution?

SWANEE'S Lake Tahoe Letter

Tahoe City, June 6

Dear Tahoeites:

What a busy week this has been with the big party at Cal-Vada on Friday night last, given by the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce for members and guests of the local chamber, a huge success, and the opening of Homewood's resort, The Hut, on Saturday night which drew a large crowd for the buffet and dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Myers, the owners, received many congratulatory messages on the 3rd, that date being the occasion of their 33rd wedding anniversary. Innovations at their resort this year include a modern ice cube machine and a walk-in frigidaire. Cal-Neva threw its doors open Monday night with friends of the local Chamber of Commerce eating deliciously prepared food "on the house."

The Tahoe City area is about to witness a building boom, according to the grapevine, and one of the first enterprises to become a reality is the new Lake Tahoe Veterinary Hospital which is located on Highway 9 about two miles northwest of town. Stauart M. Dingwall, D.V.M., will operate the business, assisted by Harry, 23, the Dingwall's elder son who is attending veterinary school at Davis, Calif. Operation will start on June 15 at which time the building, designed by Contractor Charles Warner of Tahoe City, will be ready for occupancy. The structure was planned with an idea of future expansion and the first unit will contain 16 kennels for hospital "patients," modern xray and therapy equipment, and there will be outdoor runs for boarders. Not only dogs and cats will be eligible for treatment and care, but all animals. Dr. Dingwall and family are former residents of Oceanside, La Jolla and Coronado, where he operated hospitals, all of which he disposed of before moving to Tahoe. He is a graduate of Washington State College at Pullman, Wash., and decided to make his future home here after several visits to this mountain region. Dr. and Mrs. Dingwall purchased the former W. N. Stark property on the Truckee River for their hospital site. Mrs. Dingwall and 13-year-old daughter Nan will join her husband here shortly after June 15, when school is out at La Jolla. Their son Bruce, 21, is stationed with the U.S. Infantry in Germany.

Dr. and Mrs. Dingwall were the successful bidders on the old Bob Watson property in Tahoe City, which has been in litigation since 1932 and will anounce plans at an early date regarding the buildings they will erect on iths choice townsite.

Sorry to learn of the critical illness of Chrales Kreuger, father of Mr. Floyd Carnell at a San Diego hospital where he has been confined since suffering a stroke more than a month ago. The Carnells left on Friday to visit his bedside. Krueger was well-known at the lake where he has visited during the summertime for many years.

On the brighter side plans are completed for the wedding on June 12 at 2 p.m. at the Reno Federated Church for the formal services which will unite Howard Carnell, younger son of the Floyd Carnells, and Miss Myrtle Coates of Reno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Christenson of that city. She will have as her maid-of-honor her sister, Miss Dorothy Coates, with Richard Carnell serving as best man for his brother. Ushers will include Terry Tollefson, Gus Gehlert and John Anderson. Following a honeymoon of undisclosed destination, the couple will make their home in Tahoe City where Howard is employed by Jim Williamson.

A freak storm struck the Lake Tahoe region last week bringing one "measurable" inch of snow during the night and early morning of June 3 and 4. The mercury dropped to 7 above on Friday night and 25 above on Saturday night. Precipitation measured 16th of an inch. Such cold weather is "unusual" as a rule, even for Tahoe, although during 1953 Art Frodenberg's records at the Tahoe City dam show a 5 inch snowfall on May 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Frodenberg were visitors at the home of his dad in Tahoe City over Friday night enroute to their new home in Wyoming, where Rusty will continue with his wheat crop dusting.

More improvements are noted in town this week with the new addition to the front of the Bob Tonini home at the Sierra Pacific Power Company's headquarters; the porch added to the front of the house being the company's new office. Bedrooms and closets were also enlarged and a fresh paint job is due to be completed this week. Recent guests of the Toninis were Mr. and Mrs. Mel Johanson of Palo Alto and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tonini of Morro Bay.

More summer residents are pouring into the Lake Tahoe area, the list during the past week including Mrs. Stanford Brown of Walnut Creek who was to get her Tahoe Pines home ready for summer rental; Mrs. William Murray of San Rafael, who stopped by on Thursday enroute to the family summer home on the Russian River. They return here to their Carnelian Bay home around the end of June. Mr. and Mrs. Rome Stark and daughter Roleaine, in for a visit from their Long Beach home to his parents, the Roy Starks, at the Dollar estate. Mrs. Walter Buck of the bay area, in to visit her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Ducato at Carnelian Bay. Mr. and Mrs. Milton Levy of San Francisco and daughter Carol in at Sunnyside for a weekend. Carol is prominent as an expert water skier, and has been seen in exhibtion many times during the summer months here.

Many expressions of deep regard have been evidenced by students and personnel of the Tahoe and Truckee schools in behalf of the Robert Briggs' who are departing soon for Colorado. Recently the Tahoe Lake PTA presented Mrs. Briggs with a beautiful pen and pencil set, and on the last day of school, Friday, the students in her classes, the 4th, 5th and 6th grades made her a present of a lovely red leather purse.

Fishing continues good ,but not spectacular, according to local reports. Among the lucky nimrods recently was Imon Mitchell who brought home a 4 and a 5½ pound mackinaw on Wednesday, and a 5-pounder today.

Mrs. Jeannette Mitchell, assisted by Mrs. Martha Snyder, treated the kindergarten and first grades of Tahoe Lake School to a last-day-of-school party on Friday, giving the youngsters Eskimo pies and cookies in the classroom. Special guests were Chris Beavers and Marsha Hale, the latter the grand-daughter of the Rudolph Zimmermans of Tahoe Park, and Chris the son of the Butch Beavers of the William Kent Campgrounds ranger station. Dale Mitchell accompanied his dad to Sutter over the weekend to visit Imon's parents, the L. M. Mitchells. Two new boarders at the Mitchell home in Sunnyside are Bill Dennis and Don Jardine, both of Richmond.

Tahoe City's first new laundromat will open its doors to the public in the Mayfield building at the north edge of town on Thursday, June 17. Fourteen automatic Easy washers and five Easy dryers will be available, as well as a self-help mangle. Mrs. Florence Cox and Mrs. Jean Edge, will operate the new Tahoe City Washerette.

Random Items: Loren Holmwood, well known portrait artist with extensive holdings at Tahoe, returned to the lake over the weekend and will reopen his Viking Village Art Center within a few days. Mrs. Josephine Bacchi of Sacramento is spending the summer with her son-in-law and with her daughter, the Bill Hunters at Lake Forest. Hal Sharrow of San Anselmo was a visitor at Pineland this weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Guth of Tahoe Lodge are entertaining house-guests, the C. P. Taylors of Fullerton for a week. Stella and Bob Watson have returned to their summer camp at the old Watson mill near Lake Forest for the season. Marjorie Nawlin, their niece from Arizona, is a camp guest. Latest word from the Carlton O. Valentines of Costa Mesa came from Kailua, Hawaii, where they vacationed for several weeks. They left by plane for home on May 22.

Mr. and Mrs. John Flagg, Mrs. Jeannette Mitchell and Myrle Rose, all of Tahoe, were among those present at the 64th Annual Baccularureate services held by the University of Nevada at the gynmasium on the campus Sunday, where Miss Shirley Flagg, daughter of the John Flaggs was a participant. Shirley will be one of the two girls in the class to receive a bachelor science degree in home economics. Shirley marries Louis Chapman Borz of Orange, Calif., at the Outdoor Chapel at Tahoe with Bishop Noel Porter officiating at 2 p.m. on Sunday, June 20, with a reception to follow at Forest Inn on Ward Creek.

Bill and Bernie Bechdolt took off by plane from Reno airport on Friday to attend the wedding in Salt Lake City of an old army buddie of Bill's, John Tonnaney, now an attorney of New York City, who married Miss Mary Elizabeth Chase, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Phillps Chase at Salt Lake, at a 4 p.m. ceremony on June 5 at Our Lady of Lourds Church in that city. Ten years ago Bill was a 1st sergeant at Camp Swift Texas, and Tonnaney was company clerk. Bill and Bernie decided to get married there just before the boys shipped out for overseas. There being no women in the camp Tonnaney volunteered to serve as "bridesmaid" for Bernie while Bob Ruane stood as best man for the groom. This was their first reunion in ten years and a grand time was being anticipated at the Hotel Utah where the party had accommodations.

Ring off for the week with a cheery adios to one and all . . . as ever

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Wise Stepmother

Have you heard about young Skeeter Roberts' unusual pet, the tame owl "Blinky"? He's had her about three years.

I say "her" because up to a couple of weeks ago nobody was quite sure. But now "Blinky's" a mother—of two chicks!

Seems "Blinky" had been acting kind of strange—so on a hunch, Skeeter put a couple of hen's eggs in her nest. Darn if "Blinky" didn't set on them for 5 days! Last Friday they hatched, and now "Blinky's" as proud as a mother hen! (So's Skeeter.)

From where I sit, there's a lesson for all of us. Guess you'd call it "tolerance." Birds and animals often seem to do better in that respect than humans. If I like a glass of temperate beer with supper and you'd rather have cider—it should be okay with both of us. Neither of us should give a "hoot" what the other fellow likes, says, or does, as long as he follows the law of the land. Right?

NORTH TAHOE

By JUDGE HARRY CHARRISON

Once again the fire truck of the North Tahoe Fire Control has proved its worth. A fire, that but for the timely work of the men that manned it, would have grown into such magnitude that it would have been disastrous to many acres of fine timberland and many buildings in the area. It was started by some campers leaving a fire without quenching same. The flames had jumped the road and considering the truck having to travel from Kings Beach away out to Incline Beach, really out of the area covered by the fire control district, it did a marvelous job, taking two hours before getting it under control. Howard (Curly) Masoin drove the truck with Jimmie Hensen at his side. Roy Porath and about 30 others helped in this good work. Oh yes, Mac Burroughs was in the thick of it and according to Mac it just about ruined a brand new suit.

Joby Lewis, owner of the Cal-Vada Lodge did himself proud last Saturday night when he provided and donated a delightful dinner for the benefit of the Community Methodist Church of Kings Beach. Around 300 persons attended, some 24 from Reno, a number from Truckee and Tahoe City. The highlight of the evening was a gift of a beautiful lace handmade bed spread by Julius and Neva Gold of Goldcrest Lodge, which was sold by auction (Joby being the cutest auctioneer I ever heard) which brought $236 for the church. It was sold to Father Brennan who attended, accompanied by Father O'Neil of Truckee. Jimmie Chastain was outstanding as M.C., singing a couple of western songs. Rev. A. B. Covher sang "Old Man River." The Tahoe Twirps, the sweetest youngsters ever, did three square dances. Jock McPherson sang for one of the dances, then the Tahoe Twirlers gave an excellent exhibition of square dancing, with Sophie Levra as the leader, following which dancing was enjoyed to the music of an orchestra supplied by Joby. All this, it is said, brought the building fund treasurers account up another $900. Good, huh?

Very happy to see Mrs. C. W. Vernon of Tahoe City up at Cal-Vada Lodge Saturday evening. It was about her longest trip since breaking her ankle two months ago. It will still be quite a while before it will be fully healed, but it is definitely on the right road now.

Mrs. Germaine and her young son was up from San Pedro to visit her son, Don, and his sweet little bride, who graduated from the Truckee High School last week.

Carol, Wilma and Helen, yes these three lovely ladies are going to be mighty, mighty busy from now on. Carol is postmaster of Kings Beach, Wilma is an assistant, having been in the office some time, and Helen—Helen Walters that is—has just been added to the staff. She is former postmaster of the Brockway office and a good one, too.

The north side of the lake was honored last Friday night by a visit of a large number of members of the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce. They first visited the south end having lunch at Georges Gateway and then on to Cal-Vada Lodge at Crystal Bay, where around 175 attended dinner after a cocktail hour. It was a brilliant affair. An excellent floor show was presented through the courtesy of Georges Gateway. It was a proud moment for President Fred Main of Tahoe Sierra Chamber of Commerce when the lake area which included Truckee made such a wonderful showing. Main predicts a wonderful year ahead of us and as one of the delegates said, Tahoe is a wonderful place and can really boast of its weather. Where else in California could you get a snow storm in June. It was a real thrill for most of the visitors.

And again on Monday last Cal-Neva Lodge gave a cocktail hour and dinner to the members of the Chamber of Commerce and its many friends. This also was a grand evening with most of the local people being lavishly entertained. We hope the lodges over the line, and also those along the northside which includes Kings Beach, Tahoe Vista and down on into Tahoe City, have a real prosperous year, which will make it good for all of us.

Well it would seem that Mac-Burroughs is determined to move into the new bungalow at Tahoe Vista as soon as possible. Well, around the 20th of this month anyway. Mac has been doing most of the work himself and is doing a swell job. You can bet that any thing he does, he does well. Saw Thelma the other night and she is sure looking good.

The Bradley Wallace house at Brockway has been thoroughly renovated, painted inside and out. The new color really gives it a new look.

Had quite a visit with our old friend Carl Bechdolt, Sr., a few days ago and do you know what? He's getting younger every day, looks almost like he did 35 years ago when I knew him in Pasadena. How about one of those big steaks now, Carl?

A goodly number of new faces were at the morning services of the Wee Kirk of the Pines last Sunday. A new face in the choir also in the person of Mrs. Evrla Sundberg. Mrs. Margaret sang a solo, "My Soul Is Athirst." Rev. A. B. Covher's sermon was "The Parable of Two Debtors." Open house was held at the new parsonage. It is, although rather small, very comfortable and beautifully furnished and should make a nice home for these two wonderful people. It is hoped they can keep for themselves mostly private I mean, until the time when we can build a real parsonage.

The Woman's Society for Christian Service meets every Tuesday from 2 to 4 at the church.

Getting back to the wonderful Community Church dinner at Cal-Vada Lodge something more than as seen on the face actually happened, something that illustrates the hand of friendship and cooperation, something that demonstrates how a democracy works at that memorable occassion. When a Hebrew presented a remarkable gift to the cause, a Greek Orthodox auctioned the gift to the tune of $236, two Catholic priests entered into the bidding which one of them won, and the Protestant church was the recipient of the proceeds. What a world it would be if all peoples could take this as a lesson.

KINGS BEACH SCHOOL

2nd and 3rd GRADES—Wednesday, June 2, we had the entire 1st grade class visit our room to be second graders for an hour. While they were in our room, Pat Dacus, Janet Mallory and Lynn Chatwin told them about the different subjects we study in the second grade. We also had a music lesson and we listened to two records. Then Mrs. Wing showed us a film, "Safety on the Street." It was in color. We learned many safety rules.

Tuesday, we saw a film, "Pony Express." Our upper reading group had a story about the Pony Express, so we all saw a movie about it. We learned that the riders were called couriers. We also learned that a letter sent from Missouri to California cost the sender five silver dollars.

Our class has decided to save our PTA attendance money until fall. Then we will purchase several story books for our library shelf. Previously we had decided to buy three folk dance records and Mrs. May Critchley offered to donate her three records because she had no further use of them.

Diane Davis brought a crystal ball to share with her classmates. We had fun asking "it" different questions.

Larry Mandeville brought a huge bouquet of beautiful pansies for us. They stayed fresh all week.

We plan to have a wonderful vacation, and we hope you have a wonderful vacation, too!

DONNER TRAIL SCHOOL

This was clean-up week and we cleaned and put away all of our books and booklets. We talked of what we had done this year and how we will make next year an even better year.

On Friday of this week we will have a party outside. We have planned a ball game of nine innings and other games and exercises.

We will see you all next September.

Weather Man Is Rotary Speaker At Tahoe Session

KINGS BEACH—The Rotary Club of Brockway at its meeting held in Cal-Vada Lodge, June 7, was fortunate in having as the speaker, D. C. Hershey of the U. S. Weather Bureau Station located at Blue Canyon.

Hershey presented slides of his travels in Switzerland and told of the cost of living in Austria as compared with that in Switzerland; the cost in Austria being much cheaper, while the cost in Switzerland was comparable to that of the United States.

He also told of the compulsory military training in Switzerland of all males and of the thorough inspection of all manufactured articles which the country exports.

Program chairman Marion Dodd has brought to the Rotary Club well balanced program all during the year, and these have been indeed been greatly appreciated.

Visiting Rotarians were present from Ellensburg, Wash.; Quincy, Truckee and Tahoe City.

DEER HERD FACES LOSS AS FOOD IN SCANTY SUPPLY

Mother Nature's caprices have once again put the deer of northern California's Lassen-Washoe herd and their range in jeopardy, according to the annual report of the area's interstate deer study committee.

When thousands of deer died from lack of sufficient feed during the winter of 1951-52, it meant that the surviving deer and their offspring would be healthier and increase faster, the report asserts.

Unless 5,000 deer of either sex are removed from the herd this year in the states of California and Nevada, heavy losses are bound to occur as the result of food shortages, the committee believes.

The report claims that the fawn crop of the migratory herd was higher in 1953 than it has been for the past five years. The two latest fawn crops, with a high survival, have nearly doubled the size of the herd since the winter of 1951-52.

"Although it is now against the law to harvest antlerless deer in the northeastern portion of California," the recommendations continue, "the committee wishes to go on record for this action in the full interest of the deer herd."

The Lassen-Washoe Interstate Deer Study committee was organized five years ago. It is composed of representatives of the U. S. Forest Service, Bureau of Land Management, and wildlife agencies, sportsmen and cattlemen of the two states.

A law passed at the 1953 session of the California Legislature prohibits the taking of antlerless deer for two years in the state's northeastern counties. Across the state line in Nevada, sportsmen have been taking deer of both sexes since World War II.

The committee's recommendations have been submitted to the game commissions of the two states for their guidance.

CIRCLE GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wilson of Manteca are making a visit at the Circle E Guest Ranch, enjoying the fishing and even the snow but not the earthquake which was felt here on May 28.

On June 3 another Manteca couple, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Von Berg and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rogers of San Lorenzo were at the ranch. Opening day limit fishermen included E. E. Hermeke and Charles Hahes of Colusa.

Bryce Euer and son, Robert of Folsom with Frank Cirby stopped at Donner Lake last weekend to receive a train shipment of cattle which they drove to Satteley for pasture. Earlier shipments went to the Plumas County ranch of Euer.

"CANCER" is an unpleasant word. It's easier not to think about it—to turn the page, to pass on.

MOST FOLKS who see this ad will do just that . . .

YOU ARE DIFFERENT. The fact that you're still reading this proves it.

PERHAPS you have a special reason of your own for being interested in the fight against cancer. Cancer may have taken away someone whom you loved. It's not unlikely, for cancer strikes one out of five of us. The young. The old. The strong no less than the weak.

LAST YEAR, Americans contributed more than ever before to the American Cancer Society. But still not enough. Not nearly enough for the struggle that must be waged if this implacable enemy is to be conquered for good—if we are to make cancer, like so many once-dreaded diseases, only an unpleasant memory in man's long and victorious struggle against his ancient enemies.

THIS YEAR—please—give more generously than ever. For your help is needed more than ever. Won't you please clip the coupon now—?

WOMEN'S CLUB AT LAKE MEETS TO ENJOY FASHION SHOW AND HONOR DEPARTED

TAHOE CITY—Ninety-four women attended the annual spring luncheon held at Tahoe Inn on Thursday last at 1 p.m., sponsored by the Women's Club of Tahoe. Tables in the hotel's dining room were artistically decorated with green fern, gladiola, daisies and lilac for the occasion.

Held first was the annual candlelight service for the club's 38 departed members. Mrs. Stella Watson read the names slowly as Miss Florence Vernon snuffed out a tall white candle, set in a vase of bright pansies, for each member. Mrs. Pete Sederberg of Tahoe Pines was pianist.

President Alma Guth of the Women's Club of Tahoe presided and introduced out-of-town guests. These included Mrs. Gertrude Nielsen, of the Shakespeare Club of Placerville and Mrs. Fred Pedley, president of the Wyethia Women's Club of Truckee, who was accompanied by a contingent of Truckee ladies.

Mrs. Irene LePire, the new vice president, presented the outgoing officers with gifts of jewelry from the club members.

A highlight of the afternoon was the fashion show staged by the Warren Porter's Apparel Shop in Tahoe City, models of all ages consuming over an hour to display the lovely cotton creations and bathing suits. Models included the Mesdames Martha Snyder, Ann Martin, Beccy Shontz, Audrey Brehler, Pearl Snyder, Elaine Wright, Jean Callender and Fern Schlueter, and the Misses Stephanie Snyder, and Susan Wright, and Masters Dale Mitchell and Jakie Obexer.

The Plaza Hotel at San Juan Bautista, built in 1856, was a popular stopping place for stage travelers and visitors to California in pioneer days.

Since World War II the Board of State Harbor Commissioners has spent or earmarked $20,000,000 for new facilities at the Jort of San Francisco.

The Presidio of San Francisco has existed as headquarters for Spanish, Mexican and American miiltary forces continuously since its founding in 1776.

How to stop extra wear on gears

Even in the toughest operating conditions you can be sure your differential and transmission gears have full protection against wear by keeping the cases filled with RPM Multi-Service Gear Lubricant. It withstands the extreme pressures that develop in spiral bevel and hypoid gears. A special compound in the lubricant reacts chemically to form a lubricating, wear-resisting coating on the gear teeth.

RPM Multi-Service Gear Lubricant stands up in high operating temperatures and is oxidation resistant. It contains an anti-foaming agent that helps control expansion and prevent leakage. Ask us about RPM Multi-Service Gear Lubricant.

TAHOE FOREST ACTIVITIES

Fire Prevention

One phase of the fire control job on the national forests is a successful fire prevention program. It is evident to everyone that the easiest fire to fight is the one which is never started. Hence, a successful prevention program can save the taxpayers a considerable amount of money in fire suppression costs and also provide the more orderly carrying out of the normal functions of the forest due to non-interruption of work for this purpose.

The first approach to the problem of having a successful prevention program is the analyzing of all factors bearing on causes of fire. Basically, fires in the past must be guidelines and their causes identified. Hand in hand with the study of the general causes must go an analysis of the class of fire (such as railroad, smoker, lumbering and so forth) and the class of people responsible for the fire. Such a study reveals definite trends and patterns on which prevention efforts can be logically placed. Without making such determinations, any prevention plan that could be devised would be as "shooting in the dark."

An analysis of the fires on the Tahoe National Forest for the past five years shows the following number of man-caused fires by classes:

Railroad	4
Lumbering	4
Campers	7
Smokers	32
Incendiary	1
Others	12

This analysis shows that there are, on an average, 60 forest fires caused by people each year and tells us where we should direct our prevention efforts. The analysis also shows that forest-wide, the incident of man-caused fires in 1953 was down 20 per cent from the average of previous years. Each year since 1949 we have had fewer man-caused fires, which is not only gratifying, but an indication that our previous prevention efforts are paying off and that the forests can look to further reduction in the future if we at least maintain, or better still, step up our prevention efforts.

The Prevention Plan

The Forest Prevention Plan places the responsibility on every forest officer as being an ambassador of fire prevention and each shall take every opportunity to educate, admonish and force users of the forest in the safe use of fire.

The importance of fire prevention is overshadowed only by actual fire suppression. Each ranger district has at last one fire prevention man who is charged with the responsibility of spending at least 75 per cent of his time in the contacting of people and the inspection of hazards. This employee is given special training covering such things as the incipient hazards, how to meet and talk with people, and the use of the best techniques in the elimination of fire hazards. The necessity of keeping himself clean, neat and presentable at all times to carry on his ambassadorial duties, is also stressed.

Lightning Fires

Lightning gives rise to many fires on the national forests. Until a few years ago these were accepted as inevitable and it was everyone's belief that no prevention efforts could be directed toward this natural phenomena. This is no longer the case. Science has been working for some time on rain-making devices and such studies are now expanded by the forest service to include prevention of lightning fires. The breaking up of lightning clouds, if possible, will eliminate the source of lightning. The California Forest and Range Experiment Station in Berkeley, California, has done much in this regard and is meeting with some success. The final answer is yet a long way off, but indications are that the weather can be modified. Incidentally, research into this problem is termed "Project Skyfire" and is being made a cooperative endeavor between private industry, the U. S. Forest Service, the Weather Bureau and other interested cooperators. At this time, the efforts are being directed toward the "causative" reasons for the build up of cumulus (lightning) clouds. It covers the study of detailed movement of the clouds as observed by various lookouts throughout the summer season, study of the jet stream winds, use of motion pictures and all other things that will answer the question of why these clouds are caused.

When this has been definitely established, we will then perhaps be able to prepare a prevention plan, which it is hoped, will eliminate this one big cause of fire.

The work of fire prevention goes on every day, summer and winter. The emphasis shifts from building fires to wild land fires according to the season and other factors. But it goes on and on and it must so do if we are to reduce this uncontrolled friend of man which is so destructive when allowed to run rampant.

Distant Project Would Add to Local Taxation

"If Congress approves the billion dollar proposed Upper Colorado storage program, another $146,800 in federal debt will have to be added to the $40,100,000 share of the total federal debt which the people of Nevada county already owe," California Taxpayers' Association warned today, urging that California congressmen actively oppose H. B. 4449.

This first billion dollar measure would cover only the "initial phase" of a series of projects in the Upper Colorado basin, to be built by the federal bureau of reclamation to irrigate desert lands, Earle V. Grover, president of the statewide organization, said today. For California as a whole, it would add $93,200,000 to the state's $25,443,600,000 share of the present $273,000,0,0000 national debt.

The billion dollar proposed, H.R. 4449, has already gotten by the House Interior and Insular Affairs committee by a 13 to 12 vote and is before the House Rules committee.

TRUCKEE MEN TO TEACH HUNTING

C. E. Osburn and Darrell A. Knoefler have been certified as instructors in the state's hunter safety program, it was announced this week by Seth Gordon, director of the California Department of Fish and Game.

The local sportsmen passed the written test given by the National Rifle Association and are now eligible to conduct classes qualifying juniors for a state hunting license.

Under an act of the 1953 session of the legislature, persons under the age of 16 must present a certificate of competence in the handling of firearms before receiving a hunting license.

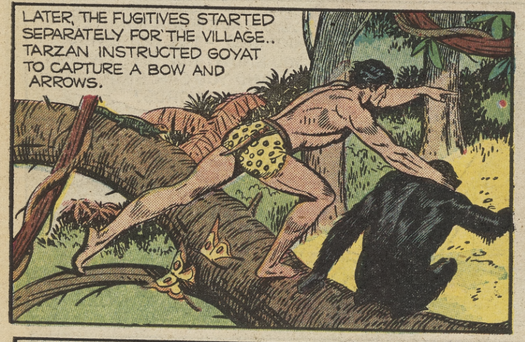
Tarzan®

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

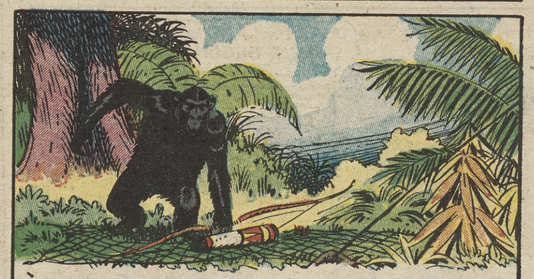
TARZAN STOOD DEFENSELESS BEFORE SLUG STRIPER, BUT THE LOYAL GOYAT SUDDENLY FLUNG A THICK BRANCH BETWEEN THE DUELISTS!

THE APE-MAN RAN TOWARD GOYAT'S TREE. A HAIRY HAND GRASPED HIM, AND TOGETHER THEY FLED TO THE FOREST.

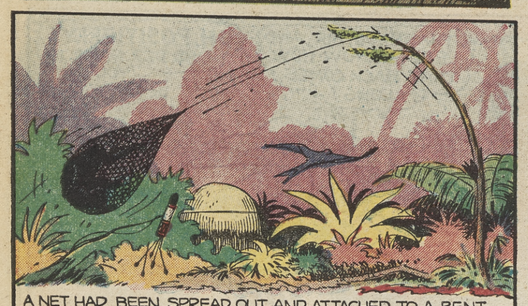
BUT WHILE HIS ENEMIES REMAINED HIDDEN, STRIPER AND THE NATIVES WERE MYSTERIOUSLY BUSY...



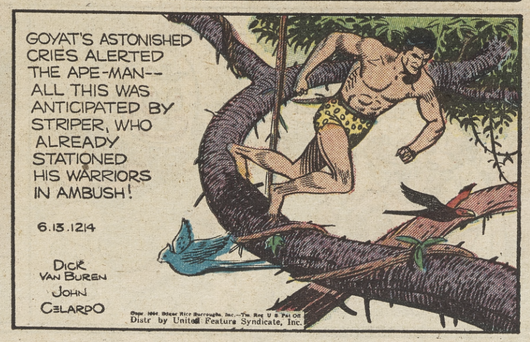
LATER, THE FUGITIVES STARTED SEPARATELY FOR THE VILLAGE.. TARZAN INSTRUCTED GOYAT TO CAPTURE A BOW AND ARROWS.



SOON GOYAT SAW THE NECESSARY WEAPONS. WITHOUT REALIZING, HE DROPPED EARTHWARD--AND SET OFF THE TRIGGER TO STRIPER'S TRAP!



A NET HAD BEEN SPREAD OUT AND ATTACHED TO A BENT TREE. NOW STRIPER'S PLAN WAS MATERIALIZING.



GOYAT'S ASTONISHED CRIES ALERTED THE APE-MAN-- ALL THIS WAS ANTICIPATED BY STRIPER, WHO ALREADY STATIONED HIS WARRIORS IN AMBUSH!
